Accidentals last for the duration of the measure, but they may be reiterated within the measure for the sake of clarity.

Grace notes always before the beat, arpeggiations always on the beat.

An accented rest  indicates an abrupt cutoff from the note preceding it.

Oboe: Fingerings for multiphonics are given in the score. The categories and numbering system refer to the following link (from Veale/Mahnkopf, The Techniques of Oboe Playing)
<http://www.remusik.org/PDF/Multiphonic%20Techniques.pdf>

Trumpet: straight, harmon mutes

Trombone: straight, harmon, plunger, cup mutes

Percussion:
triangle: Preferably small lion’s roar: Preferably large (low tom tom or tenor drum)
tam tam: Preferably large (orchestral)

Double Bass: Natural harmonics are always notated as they are played. “Sounding pitches” for natural harmonics refer to the octave below.
